Itinerary

Day1- rrive fayoum

Early in the morning, our Egypt Tailor Made tour guide will pick you up from your Cairo hotel in an air-conditioned car and drive you "approximately 95km" to the Fayoum oasis. It was regarded by the ancient Egyptians as a focus of cult adoration for the crocodile god Sobek. There are 200 or so of these enormous waterwheels scattered across the oasis. The Great Seven Waterwheels, one of the Fayoum oasis icons, will be seen when you arrive.

Then you'll see "Qaron's Lake," which is also thought to be the oldest natural lake in the world and is the largest salt water lake in Egypt. Around the lake and in the surrounding area, you will see various fruits and vegetables and a spectacular panorama of winter migrant birds. After a hot day of sightseeing, it's the ideal location to unwind. After that, you'll make a picnic lunch stop. traveling to "Wadi al-Rayan," which was designated a Protected Area in 1989, after that. It's a fantastic location for a relaxing adventure day excursion. Lakes there are perfect for swimming, jumping off, or just taking in the breathtaking natural scenery.

After that, we will transfer you back to fayoum hotel, you will spend the night there.

Day2- fayoum tour- back cairo

After breakfast in the morning, you will travel to the "Wadi Hitan" Valley of Whales. Due to the vast number of fossils preserved there dating back to some of the oldest types of whales, it was named a UNESCO World Heritage Site in July 2005. Discover fossils dating back up to 200 million years, to a time when the desert was submerged in water. The skeletons and bones of whales and sea cows are the most noticeable fossils. Whale fossils range from individual bones to complete skeletons, and some partial skeletons are currently on display in the park's public area.

After concluding this wonderful journey, move just a few hundred meters south of Wadi El Rayyan Road to Mudawara Mountain for a visit.

It is more of a rock structure than a true mountain, yet it has a lovely, layered aspect with a certain symmetry that catches your eye. Following that, you will be taken to Karanis, a Ptolemaic-era ruin of an ancient city. Numerous monuments from the Roman, Coptic and Early Islamic periods may be found in that city. then we will transfer you back to Cairo hotel
