Once in the territory of Alf Leila Wa Leila, be sure to look around. Oriental motifs prevail in the architecture of buildings and the landscape: you can enter the hotel through large rounded gates, and walk along the paved marble paths, admiring the columns, domes of buildings, and bizarre towers.

In other words, the hotel is not just an ordinary hotel in a series of similar ones, but is a real palace, providing guests with great opportunities for recreation and entertainment. So what is the show itself? First of all, there are a variety of folk dances performed by professional dancers.

1001 Nights in Sharm

Both men and women show their art. What is only one male belly dance or Tanoura, when performers in skirts are spinning non-stop for more than half an hour? This is an amazing sight! In addition to dance numbers, you will find stunts with horses and dexterous riders, conquerors of fire with flaming torches, Bedouins with flags, warriors, acrobats, and much more at the "1001 Nights show in Sharm".

The world of an oriental fairy tale will open before you in all its splendor. The program, in which the national flavor is conveyed as accurately as possible, is very popular with both children and adults.

The show usually starts after sundown so that viewers can experience Egyptian history or a spectacular dance and costume scene in vivid colors. Your child will hear tales about Osiris and Isis, stories about the adventures of Sinbad and the life of Scheherazade, epics, and stories about slave markets, flying carpets, ancient pharaohs, riddles of the Sphinx, and much more.

You will be transferred back to your hotel after your Sharm El Sheikh excursions are completed.
