Day 1: arrival

After your arrival in Egypt, you will be picked up from the airport by Cairo Top Tours representative in an air-conditioned private vehicle to transfer you to your hotel in Cairo to finish with you the check-in process.

Day 2: Giza and Dahshour Necropolises

On our second day, our professional tour guide will pick you up from your hotel in an air-conditioned car to transfer you to the great pyramids in the Necropolis of Giza. By visiting the three Great Pyramids: Khufu, Khafra, and Mankaura, the Great Sphinx, and the Valley Temple of King Chephren, you will learn everything about ancient Egypt's history and civilizations.

Then we will stop for a lunch break in a near local restaurant before moving to Dahshour Necropolis, where we will get to discover the Pyramids of Dahshour (also known as Pyramids of Amnemhat III), are located 40 km from the South of the center of Cairo, in Dahshour, the southern royal necropolis of the ancient city of Memphis.

And finally, at the end of your day, you will get back to your hotel!

Day 3: the National museum of Egyptian Civilisation and islamic Cairo

On your third day, from your hotel in Cairo, we will escort you to the National Museum of Egyptian Civilization \(NMEC\); the first museum in the middle east to focus on the first civilization in history, with its significant theme and collections located in Fustat, to take a tour of the different halls of the museum.

After leaving the National Museum, we will head to a near restaurant to have lunch before heading to Islamic Cairo to see Al-Refai and Sultan Hassan mosques; the two massive buildings in Citadel square that are considered monumental examples of Mamluke architecture and engineering, to take a tour of their massive worship halls and discover the mamluke architecture. Then you will return to your hotel by the end of your day tour.

Day 4: temple of Al-Karnak and Luxor

We will take you to Cairo airport to catch your flight to Luxor airport, where you will meet your tour guide to proceed with you to Karnak temple: the largest and the most important temple in Egypt, to discover its three main temples. Then we will head to Luxor museum which houses some precious pieces that represent the art and the history of ancient Egypt.

And finally, at the end of your long day, our tour leader will take you back to your hotel in Luxor and finish all the check-in procedures with you.

Day 5: the Valley of the Queens and the Valley of the Kings (Wadi El Melouk Wal Malekat)

On day 5, we will pick you up from your hotel in Luxor to escort you to the Valley of the Queens and the Valley of the Kings (Wadi El Melouk Wal Malekat), which contain the royal tombs of Egypt's great Kings, to learn about the 62 Pharaohs that are buried there. And then, we will transfer to a near restaurant to have lunch before transferring to Deir Bahary cache and the Colossi of Memnon.

There we will see the extraordinary collection of mummified remains and funeral equipment of more than 50 kings, queens, and other royal family members of the New Kingdom that the Deir contains. As well as the Colossi of Memnon, two monumental statues representing Amenhotep III (1386-1353 BCE).

Day 6: Edfou and Komombo temples

You will spend your sixth day of the trip at the Edfou and Komombo temples. We will start firstly with Edfou temple, situated halfway between Luxor and Aswan, arguably the best-preserved temple in all of Egypt. Then Komombo temple, that was used for the worship of two gods, Sobek; the crocodile god, and Horus, the falcon god.

Day 7: High Dam and the Nubian village in Aswan

On the seventh day, we will be transferred to Aswan to spend the whole day in Aswan's most visited sites: the High Dam; one of the world's largest dams as well as the Nubian Village, where you will get to explore the Nubian culture and learn more about its traditions.
