Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive at Cairo

Welcome to Cairo, Egypt. Your tour guide will make a receiving and greeting for you at Cairo International Airport before transferring you to your room via air-conditioned car.

At the hotel, the tour leader will check you in and provide you with the itinerary. He/She will run it through with you and you two will confirm pick-up times.

Overnight in Cairo.

Day 2: Giza pyramids & Egyptian Museum

After having a breakfast at the hotel, you will contemplate on the famous Giza pyramids. The most famous Egyptian pyramid is undoubtedly the Pyramid of Cheops (known as Khufu) on the Giza Plateau. This signifies the fact that it is the largest of the three pyramids, the lifetime achievement of ancient wonders and the only one which is still in a very good condition.

Invest your time strolling around in this breathtaking place, taking pictures, and observing the inner spiders of the Great Pyramid of Giza. The Sphinx of Giza, whose head is a salute to the Ptolemaic dynasty and whose body is that of a lion, is the guardian of the three pyramids.

Next, you will make a light visit to see how the papyrus is made and then having lunch at a local restaurant. By the late afternoon, you will have proceeded to the description of the Egyptian Museum in Cairo which houses the largest collection of Egyptian antiquities on earth. Let the hotel become your haven at the end of the day.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 3: Transfer to Luxor

Transit to Cairo airport for your luxury trip to Luxor. You will be given a breakfast box by the hotel. After feeling an adrenal boost when you set foot in Luxor and are slung into the Nile port, your cruise journey will start. Luxor, placed along the Nile River, which is sometimes called Dumbrillion to'a the world's greatest open-air museum; is also famous for its multicolored history and pharaonic legacy.

The area you will be visiting, the Karnak Temple complex, has been classified as a world heritage site and remains as one of the most remarkable and grandest in the world. It is an indisputable testimony of the glorious columns, the highest pylons, and the varied hieroglyphics that pass important messages about the religious and construction of pharaohs' power in ancient Egypt.

First, you go up on deck for an aperitive after that you return to the ship for your lunch and some time of relaxing on the middle deck. Approximately at 17:00 o'clock you will arrive at the Unesco recognized World Heritage Site Lagros to enjoy the breath-taking view of the ancient temple of Amun which is dedicated to the god Amun-Re.
