Day 1 Welcome to Day 1 - Arrival in Cairo Cairo

Arrive in Cairo, the land of the pharaohs. Upon completion of passport and customs formalities at Cairo International Airport, our representative will meet you at the exit and escort you to your hotel.

Day 2 The Pyramids of Giza, and Saqqara

Today you will have a delicious breakfast with typical food. The route will start through the most interesting points of interest in Cairo.

The Pyramids of Giza are the first place we will visit with our official English-speaking guide. You will be amazed by the grandeur of the Giza Sphinx, the Great Pyramid of Giza and the Pyramid of Cheops. This is the only one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World that still exists. You can view it from the main entrance plaza and from a closer vantage point.

Optionally, you can add an excursion to the Saqqara Tomb. Within this world heritage site, the funerary complex of King Djoser stands out. It is a building built to honor the king in the afterlife. Djoser's pyramid is the first stone structure built in the form of a pyramid. It symbolizes the beginning of this type of construction in Egypt.

At night, you can rent a light show on the pyramids of Giza. You can also enjoy a unique dinner show in a floating restaurant on the Nile. Ask your travel assistant for more information.

Day 3 - Nile cruise and tour of the East Bank of Luxor

It's time for the next stage of your amazing tour of Egypt, Dubai, and Abu Dhabi. Once you have finished breakfast, you will be picked up at the time that was confirmed with you the day before, then you will be transferred to the airport for your flight to Luxor.

Upon arrival in Luxor, you will be met again at the airport, then transferred to the port where you will board a 5-star luxury Nile cruise on the Nile River that will be your home for the next four nights.

Shortly after boarding your Nile cruise, you will be served your first lunch on board, then you will enjoy a leisurely trip to visit two stunning monuments on the East Bank of Luxor: Karnak Temple Complex and Luxor Temple.

You will return to the Nile cruise after visiting these two sites and dinner will be served shortly thereafter. Tonight you will spend the first night of your Nile cruise in Luxor.

Meals are included: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 4 - West Bank of Luxor Sightseeing Tour and Cruise to Edfu

Start your fourth day of your Egypt, Dubai and Abu Dhabi tour with a sumptuous breakfast in a luxurious setting and then it's time to explore the West Bank of Luxor.

Here you will visit one of Egypt's most famous attractions, the Valley of the Kings, which houses more than 60 ancient royal tombs, including the tomb of King Tut.

You'll then visit the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut and the equally impressive statues of Memnon, before returning to the ship in time for lunch. The Temple of Hatshepsut is the most magnificent temple ever built by the ancient Egyptians

After your West Bank tour, your Nile cruise will depart from Luxor, and you will enjoy a beautiful leisurely cruise to Edfu. Dinner will be served on board in the evening, and you will spend the night on board the Nile cruise on the calm waters of the Nile in Edfu.

Meals are included: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 5 - Cruise from Edfu to Aswan with tours in Edfu and Kom Ombo

Today you will enjoy another good breakfast on the water and then disembark the Nile cruise and take a short tour to see the beautiful Temple of Horus in Edfu. This temple is the best-preserved Ptolemaic temple in Egypt and has been buried under the desert sands for over 2000 years.

Once everyone is back on board, the ship will once again begin sailing along the Nile, this time towards Kom Ombo where you will visit the Kom Ombo Temple. This stunning twin temple was built to honor Horus, the falcon-headed god, and Sobek, the god of fertility and creator of the world.

After this tour, your luxury Nile cruise will sail to Aswan, with an excellent lunch served along the way. Enjoy the remainder of the afternoon at your own pace and then enjoy another delicious dinner on board in the evening. Tonight you will sleep on the Nile in Aswan.

Meals are included: Breakfast, lunch and dinner

Day 6 - Aswan Sightseeing Tour

Day 6 of your Egypt, Dubai & Abu Dhabi tour will start again with a wonderful breakfast on the water, then it will be time to start your sightseeing tour soon, your first stop will be at the famous granite quarries to see the unfinished obelisk which is the largest obelisk ever discovered.

Next, enjoy an unforgettable visit to the ancient Philae Temple. This amazing UNESCO World Heritage Site was in danger of being lost forever due to

Day 7 - Trip to Cairo

No one will blame you if you wake up feeling sad that your Egypt Nile Cruise Tours is coming to an end. After all, you've had the time of your life, so why not sit back and relax as you enjoy one last breakfast before disembarking

Later in the day, one of your tour managers and a driver will escort you to the airport, where you will board your flight back to Cairo. Upon arrival at the airport in Cairo, you will again be greeted by your tour manager and transferred to your hotel where you will stay overnight.

Meals are included: Breakfast.

Day 8 - Egyptian Museum and Cairo Sightseeing Tour

Start your day with another hearty breakfast at the hotel, and shortly after your meal, your guide and private driver will take you on a fascinating visit to the Egyptian Museum, which houses thousands of artifacts from Egypt's fascinating past. Your tour also includes access to the museum's Hall of Treasures where you can admire the amazing collection of ancient artifacts found inside the tomb of King Tutankhamun.

This will be followed by a delicious lunch at a good local restaurant, and after eating, you will be taken to Coptic Cairo to see the famous Hanging Church of Cairo and the famous Ben Ezra Synagogue.

Your final stop for the day will be at Khan El Khalili Souk where merchants have been selling their goods since 1382. No visit to Cairo is complete without a visit to this vibrant bazaar, even if you don't intend to do any shopping while you're there.

After spending some time in the market, your tour manager and private driver will take you back to your hotel where you will spend another night in comfort and style.

Meals are included: Breakfast and lunch.

Day 9 - Optional tour to Alexandria

Today you have the option to enjoy a tour of Alexandria, or you can spend the entire day on your own to do as you please. The tour in Alexandria is optional and therefore not included in the price of your Egypt Travel Packages. You will stay the night back at your hotel in Cairo.

Meals are included: Breakfast.

Day 10 - Flight to Dubai and free time

Today you will begin a new phase of your Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Egypt sightseeing tour with a Nile cruise. After enjoying another wonderful breakfast at your hotel, you will be picked up on time and transferred to the airport where you will board your flight to Dubai.

When you land in Dubai, one of our drivers will greet you at the airport, assist you in every way possible, and then transfer you to the luxury hotel where you will be staying while in Dubai.

Upon arrival at the hotel, you will be assisted with check-in, confirmed for the next day's reception, and then spend the rest of the day at the hotel.

Meals are included: Breakfast.

Day 11 - Dubai City Tour

After enjoying a sumptuous breakfast at your hotel in Dubai, your tour guide will arrive at the agreed time (09:00 to 09:30) and begin your Dubai sightseeing tour. Your first stop will be at the Bastakiya Heritage Area to see the 225-year-old Al Fahidi Fort, which also houses the very impressive Dubai Museum.

After that, you will be taken to spend some time in one of Dubai's most beloved and charming shopping centers, the Gold and Spice Souk. However, on your way to these places, you will also enjoy a very scenic trip across the Dubai Creek in a traditional abra boat.

After you've had plenty of time to shop and look around, you'll then head to the stunningly gorgeous Jumeirah Mosque to take some great photos, although you won't be allowed to enter this mosque.

Your next stop will be the world-famous Burj Al Arab, an iconic landmark in the Dubai skyline, and possibly the most luxurious hotel in the world. Again, this stop is only for taking photos from the outside.

Afterward, you'll move on to the Madinat Jumeirah Souk. It's a very charming place and much-loved for its many winding paths and roads lined with cafes and fancy restaurants.

After the souk, you will enjoy a short visit to the Dubai Mall on your way to visit the Burj Khalifa, the tallest building in the world that stands almost one kilometer high in the desert sky. Not only will you visit this stunning tower, but you will take the elevator to the 124th floor to enjoy the breathtaking views from the tower's observation deck.

Finally, you will have some free time to shop at The Dubai Mall, the world's largest shopping center, after which you will return to your hotel where you can enjoy another great night's sleep in the lap of luxury.

Meals are included: Breakfast.

Day 12 - Abu Dhabi Sightseeing Tour from Dubai

Today, after enjoying another classic Iftar at your hotel, you will be picked up again at the same time, but unlike the previous two days, this day will not be spent in Dubai. Instead, you'll head straight to Abu Dhabi, with your first stop being the vast Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque.

This mosque is overflowing with luxury and grandeur, such as the 24-karat gold gilded chandeliers. The chandelier in the main prayer hall is the largest in the world, weighing more than 15 tons. The mosque also houses the largest hand-woven carpet in the world, and most interestingly, it is the fourth largest mosque in the world, capable of accommodating up to 40,000 people.

After your visit to the mosque, you will head to Union Square in the city center, and then to the Corniche. Next, you'll head to the Heritage Village via the very impressive Emirates Palace. This will be followed by two more photo stops; first at Yas Island and then at Ferrari World, both popular entertainment areas, the latter of which also hosts the annual Formula 1 Abu Dhabi Grand Prix.

After a plethora of sightseeing, all members of your group will return to their hotels and the rest of the day/evening will be yours to enjoy as you wish.

Meals are included: Breakfast.

Day 13 - Desert safari with falconry experience and BBQ dinner

Today you'll have the morning entirely to yourself, so enjoy a nice leisurely breakfast at your hotel, then you're free to spend the rest of the morning as you please. Between 15:00 and 15:30, your guide will pick you up and you'll head out into the desert in a comfortable, air-conditioned SUV to conquer some sand dunes.

After a while you will stop at the highest of the highest dunes in the area so you can enjoy some great views of the desert. Next, you will be transferred to a Bedouin camp where you will be able to enjoy some great cold refreshments here and even ride camels while your hosts prepare a barbecue fire

After a magical afternoon and an unforgettable evening under the stars, you will be taken back to your hotel where you can end your day in absolute luxury.

Meals are included: Breakfast and BBQ dinner

Day 14 - Egypt, Dubai, Abu Dhabi and Dubai Tour comes to an end

Sadly, your 14-day tour of Egypt, Dubai and Abu Dhabi has now come to an end, but before you leave us, sit down for another excellent breakfast while you reminisce about all the wonderful things you've seen over the past 14 days.

At the time agreed with you yesterday, your driver will pick you up and escort you to the airport. When you arrive at the airport, any assistance you may need will be offered again, but then it's time to say goodbye so you can complete immigration formalities and board your flight home. We hope that your Dubai, Abu Dhabi, and Egypt on a 14-day Nile cruise has been everything you hoped for and more.

Meals are included: Breakfast.
