Itinerary

Day 1: Arrival in Cairo & Visiting Saqqara and Dahshur Pyramids

After clearing customs at Cairo International Airport, a manager of Cairo Top Tours will meet you and help you with the procedures for taking your tickets and luggage. Then, you will start your first Cairo one-day tour, which begins at the Pyramids and Sphinx of Giza.

In your interior, all the fascinating aspects of the combination of construction pyramids and of various Egyptian kings—Cheops, Chephren, and Mycerinus—will be thoroughly explained by your guide.

Later, you will be driven to Saqqara to see the mythical Step Pyramid of Djoser, built by Imhotep.

This revolutionary pyramid signified the end of the evolution of pyramid building in that it was no longer built simply as a tomb; it also served the purpose of aiding the spirit in the afterworld.

Your tour will then proceed to the Dahshur Pyramids, where after a delicious meal, you will see the well-cased Bent Pyramid and the Red Pyramid of King Snefru, father of Cheops, who built one of the most famous pyramids in Egypt. Replete with some of you will find royal tombs with just awe-inspiring pyramids from this period.

Lastly, you will visit Memphis, which is the oldest city of the ancient Egyptian civilization on that day.

This city was established by King Menes around 3100 B.C. after the conquest of Upper and Lower Egypt and served as a political, social, and religious center for several centuries. You will see the colossal statue of Ramses II and the beautiful Alabaster Sphinx.

After the tour, you will be escorted to your hotel for check-in and overnight rest.

Meals included: lunch

Overnight: Cairo

Day 2: Alexandria Day Tour

Following breakfast at the hotel, your guide and personal driver will embark on a Corsair trip to Alexandria, which is the historic city founded by Alexander the Great in 332 B.C. This city served as the capital of Egypt for almost a millennium and, at the moment, is ranked as the second most important city in the country after Cairo.

On getting to Alexandria, your tour starts with the Catacombs of Kom El Shoqafa, an underground cemetery, which began as a private tomb for the wealthy elite and was opened for the burial of others later. You will also go to see Pompey's Pillar, Egypt's tallest free-standing column which was erected in honor of the Roman emperor Diocletian to thank him for his support of the city of Alexandria.

Next, you will view the Mediterranean Sea, then visit the Citadel of Qaitbay, a historical landmark built in 1477 A.D at the entry of the Bay where the ancient Lighthouse of Alexandria also called the Pharos was located.

After satisfying your taste buds with great seafood in a five-star restaurant, you will visit the Modern Bibliotheca of Alexandria, a library structure with a reading space, a conference hall, and a planetarium. Along the route, you will also get to view the squares and the markets of Alexandria as well as attractions such as the "unknown soldiers" and statues of modern-day politicians.

After the tour, you'll be driven back to Cairo with a stop for coffee or tea.
