Itinerary

Day 1: Cairo - Bahariya Oasis - White Desert

Your pick-up will be from your hotel in Cairo or Giza in a comfortable air-conditioned car early in the morning; you will be ushered by your professional tour guide to Bahariya Oasis. The beautiful green environment is around and near before going to the historical desert when one goes near the area of the oasis.

The first Interesting Place is called Valley of the Golden Mummies in which ten Royal mummies give that essential finishing touch for burial. From here one can like a free range within the territory of the Tombs of the Noble and the name is appropriate for the status of the upper ancient Bahariya class. Among all these tombs Zed-Amun-Ef-Ankh and Bannentiu tombs are described to be famous because these tombs combined generations of burial additions which represent the deducing of cultures in such areas.

Following this, he went to the temple of Alexander the Great which according to local folklore Bibliography slept as she journeyed to Siwa oasis. At the first archaeological expeditions, it was supposed that the Temple of Ain El-Mefetla was referred to the 26th Dynasty However more research has pointed out that this temple comprises five chapels, which played an important role in establishing the relevance of this cult image.

Day 2: Back to Cairo

Your day begins with an enchanting Bedouin breakfast: For the boastful dawn, the tea boiled on the sweetness of the deserts in front of the preening dawn. The first promising activity is taking a bath in the hot springs because the water washes away all physical and mental stress, and gives real folks the feeling that they are at an oasis.

Here the White Desert of Egypt where mushroom-shaped limestones and ‘Rabbit’ shaped rocks of the desert wind have been shaped for centuries. The rather unique thing about this site is that around this landscape there are so many locations where one can take beautiful and fascinating photos and just admire the works of Mother Nature.

But before Cairo, there is Bahariya Oasis, which is an oasis in the middle of the desert, and a green desert island surrounded by dunes. on route one can drop in at the Black Desert agenda virtually paved with small black volcanic pebbles giving a name to the territory. You will also be able to visit some other parts like the saltwater lavatory and Worksheet about the dunes Besides the account of the Bedouin guide telling more about the area and the other attractions.
