Jebran Khalil Jebran Museum and Kozhaya trip

Our pleasant guide will meet you as you begin your day trip from one of our destinations, the Jebran Khalil Jebran Museum, which is located in the village of Bsharri in northern Lebanon. The museum is dedicated to the life and work of the famous Lebanese artist, writer, and philosopher, Jebran Khalil Jebran. The museum is housed in a beautiful old house that was donated to Jebran by a friend, and it contains a large collection of Jebran's paintings, sculptures, and manuscripts.

Then head to the Monastery of Kozhaya, which is a beautiful and historic Maronite monastery that dates back to the 11th century. The monastery is located in a stunning natural setting, surrounded by tall cliffs and lush forests. Visitors to the monastery can explore the ancient buildings, which include a number of beautiful churches, a museum, and a library.
