Day 1: Arrive at Beirut Airport

Welcome to our private tour of Lebanon with daily departures, which can be tailored to meet your interests and schedule. You'll enjoy a more personalized experience as the trip is for your group only, with no other people.

Upon arrival at Beirut's Rafik Hariri International Airport, you will meet your private driver in the arrivals hall and be escorted to your hotel. During the rest of the day, you can rest to recover from jet lag or wander around the city center.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars) or a similar hotel.

Day 2: Beirut City Tour

After breakfast, you will meet your driver and guide in the hotel lobby and begin your tour of Beirut. You will visit the National Museum with rich exhibits, the magnificent Mohammed El-Amin Mosque, and the Maronite St. George's Cathedral. In the afternoon, you will continue your tour to the Beirut Souks, where you will see the famous bell tower. Then you will visit the American University of Beirut, the Rocks of Hammam, which is also known as the Rocks of Raouche and the Corniche.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 3: Beirut - Harissa - Byblos

After breakfast, you will first be taken to visit Jeita Grotto. The cave consists of two layers: In the upper layer you will meet the largest stalactites in the world, and in the lower layer you will take a boat to enjoy. Then you will head to visit Harissa, where the shrine of Our Lady of Lebanon is located. Harissa is one of the most popular pilgrimage sites in this country. Then you will explore a UNESCO World Heritage Site - Byblos, an ancient city where people started living as early as 5000 BC. After the visit, you will be transferred to your hotel in Byblos.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch

Accommodation: Alef Boutique Hotel (4 stars)

Day 4: Wadi Qadisha (Sacred Valley) and Arz Allah Forest

Your guide and driver will wait for you in the hotel lobby after breakfast. It will take an hour and a half on the way to Bsharre (Bsharre). We will stop in the town of Tannourine halfway to enjoy the three natural bridges. After arriving in Bsharre, your guide will first lead you to visit the museum that commemorates the famous Lebanese-American poet Khalil Gibran (1883-1931). We will stroll through the tranquil Cedar of the Lord forest, where cedar trees have been growing for 1,500 years.

The highlight of the day is the Qadisha Valley, also known as the Sacred Valley, or Wadi Qadisha, which was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List in 1998. Follow your guide's footsteps to walk along the Cadizha River, where you will see cliffs, pristine springs, and waterfalls as well as churches and monasteries. On the way, your guide will lead you to visit the 12th-century Qusaya Monastery. Finally, we will return to Beirut tonight.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 5: World Heritage Tour to Anjar and Baalbek

You will have breakfast at your hotel and your day will start with a visit to Anjar, which is an ancient city dating back to the 8th century AD. After visiting the Umayyad ruins, we will visit the Baalbek temple complex that was built for Baalbek, the sun god.

You will visit the Temple of Jupiter, the Temple of Bacchus, and the Temple of Venus. Afterward, you will continue to Chateau Ksara Winery to taste some mellow wines that are considered the best in Lebanon. If you have time, you can visit Lake Taanayel as an alternative. Afterward, you will be picked up and driven back to Beirut.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 6: Hike in the Cedars of the Chouf Reserve and Deir el-Qamar

In the morning, you will be escorted to the Chouf Cedars Reserve, which is the largest reserve in Lebanon where you will enjoy a short hike. You will then continue your journey to the 200-year-old Beiteddine Palace and Deir el-Qamar, which is a well-preserved old town with elegant layouts. After the visits, you will be taken to your hotel in Beirut.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 7: South Lebanon Ports - Tyre and Sidon

In the morning, an hour and a half drive will take you to Tyre, which is the ancient Phoenician city where you will visit the ruins of Tyre including the Egyptian harbor, public baths, Roman cemetery, and hippodrome. You will then move on to Sidon, which is one of the oldest Phoenician cities. You will enjoy a different lifestyle by visiting its souk, naval citadel, and fish market. After visiting the nearby Ashmun Temple, you will be escorted back to your hotel.

Meals: Breakfast and lunch.

Accommodation: Al Jawaher Hotel (4 stars)

Day 8: Beirut Airport

Your driver will pick you up from the hotel according to your flight time and meet you at Beirut's Rafik Hariri International Airport. Have a nice trip!
