Wheelchair Accessible Egyptian Museum, Coptic, and Islamic Cairo Tour

Start your Cairo tour from any agreed pickup location, where our Cairo Top Tours Egyptologist guide will meet you. Begin an unforgettable Wheelchair Accessible Egyptian Museum, Coptic, and Islamic Cairo Tour in a private car that accommodates wheelchairs, driven by a personal driver.

Commence your visit at the Egyptian Museum in downtown Cairo, situated near the renowned Tahrir Square. It serves as an excellent introduction to Egypt's mysterious history, offering insights into the full scope of the pharaonic era. Constructed in 1898 through the efforts of the renowned French scientist Auguste Mariette, the museum officially opened in 1902 and is considered one of the oldest and most significant museums globally, a must-visit attraction in Cairo.

Continue your Cairo exploration to the medieval fortress, the Citadel of Saladin, an iconic symbol of Islamic Cairo. Built by Salah El-Din El Ayouby at the end of the 12th century, he was a renowned leader and founder of the Ayyubid Dynasty. The Citadel is an essential part of all Cairo Day Tours, especially those focusing on Islamic Cairo when visiting Egypt.

Next, explore the area known as Coptic Cairo, beginning with visits to the Hanging Church of the Holy Virgin Mary, constructed atop two towers of the ancient Roman fortress of Babylon. Also, visit the Cavern Church of Abu Serga and the Synagogue of Ben Ezra.

Conclude your remarkable Cairo tours with a stroll through Khan El Khalili, enjoying one of the best walking tours in Cairo and the opportunity to purchase souvenirs that will forever remind you of your incredible Egypt adventures.
