Take a once-in-a-lifetime trip from Sokhna Port to the magnificent Giza Pyramids that impress with the Great Pyramid and the Sphinx as well as the Valley Temple. Moreover, there is a tour to Saqqara, home to Egypt's oldest pyramids, as well as the lost city of Memphis. One of the oldest cities on record, Memphis dates back to roughly 3100 BC and was the capital of Egypt throughout the Old Kingdom period. It is still a major archaeological location, having grand temples of the pharaohs, tombs of the kings, and structures from the earlier years of the history of the state.

Tour to Pyramids, Memphis, and Sakkara from Sokhna Port

Your tour leader will be waiting for you at the Sokhna port of entry and will assist you in finding an air-conditioned vehicle as you commence your day tour.

Giza Pyramids:

In this section, you will go to the pyramids of Giza—the pyramids of Khufu, Khafre, and Menkaure.

The Valley Temple:

Tour the Valley Temple, where priests once mummified the remains of King Chephren. You'd also get to see the Sphinx up close, a famous lion and its forever osephus Chephren, next to the great building's burial complex.

After the very first visits, you'll enjoy a tasty meal at a local eatery, and after that you will be ready for the next leg of the excursion.

Memphis City:

Visit Memphis, the first capital city of Egypt, which has a huge statue of Ramses II and the Great Alabaster Sphinx. This ancient city is believed to have existed since 3100 B.C.

Sakkara:

As you go out of Cairo in a seven-to-six mission to within any point twenty-seven kilometers southwest, you shall visit the step pyramid made for King Zoser, a very significant development in the history of pyramid construction, which transformed its primitive masaba structures into the fabled structure it is today.

Finally, you will be returned to your cruise, and a transfer will be provided to your cruise ship at Suleiman Port.
