Back again and overnight aboard the cruise in Aswan.

Included Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Kom Ombo and Edfu Temples

You will begin your day with an optional excursion to the Abu Simbel temples from Aswan, renowned as impressive monuments in southern Egypt and designated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site. These temples, carved into the mountainside during the 18th dynasty of the New Kingdom under Pharaoh Ramses II, are known as the "Nubian Monuments". Following this, the tour proceeds with a visit to the Kom Ombo Temple, a unique double temple dedicated to the crocodile god Sobek and the falcon god Haroeris (Horus). After exploring Kom Ombo Temple, we will journey to Edfu, where the well-preserved temple dedicated to Horus, protector of kingship, awaits. Dating back over 2,000 years, this temple remained buried in sand until its rediscovery by the French expedition in 1798. Our cruise then continues to Luxor, where we will spend the night aboard the luxurious 5-star cruise ship.

Day 5: Luxor West Bank Tours

Our first stop will be the renowned Valley of the Kings, where you'll have the opportunity to explore the remarkable tombs of Pharaohs from the New Kingdom era, including the tomb of King Tutankhamun. Following this, we'll visit the impressive Temple of Hatshepsut (known as El Deir El Bahary Temple), the mortuary temple of ancient Egypt's first queen who ruled during the New Kingdom period. The day will conclude with a visit to the magnificent Colossi of Memnon, the remaining statues of the temple of Amenophis III. We'll return to the cruise ship for overnight stay.
