Day 1: Luxor East bank

Our tour leader will greet you and transfer you to board the Nile Cruise, marking the start of an unforgettable holiday.

First, you'll visit one of Luxor's most renowned and easily accessible temple ruins, the Luxor Temple, built by two kings—Amenhotep II and Ramesses II.

Next, you'll explore the Karnak Temple, the largest religious structure ever built, dedicated to the Theban gods Amun, Mut, and Khonsu.

Optional: Attend the Sound and Light Show at Karnak Temple.

We'll then return to the Nile Cruise for an overnight stay.

Meals: Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Luxor west bank

In the morning, after breakfast, we'll visit Luxor's West Bank to begin the tour.

First, you'll explore the world-renowned Valley of the Kings, home to numerous mummies of queens and kings, including the notable tomb of King Amenhotep II (KV35). The rock quality in the Valley varies, from fine to coarse stone.

Next, we'll stop at one of Luxor's iconic sites, the Colossi of Memnon—two massive statues of Pharaoh Amenhotep, each towering 60 feet (18 m) and weighing approximately 720 tons.

You'll then visit El-Deir el-Bahari, a complex of mortuary temples and tombs built by Queen Hatshepsut. It features three levels, each with a colonnade at the far end.

Optional: Morning hot air balloon ride.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 3: Kom Ombo and Edfu temples

In the morning, we'll visit the Kom Ombo Temple, a unique double temple dedicated to the crocodile god Sobek and the falcon-headed Haroeris.

Next, we'll explore the grand Temple of Edfu, one of the largest in Egypt, built atop ancient ruins from the time of Ramses III. The Temple of Horus at Edfu is often regarded as the most remarkable of all the Nile-side temples between Luxor and Aswan.

Afterwards, we'll return to the boat for the night.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, Dinner

Day 4: Aswan Tour

First, you'll visit the High Dam, which protects Egypt from flooding. Next, you'll explore the Philae Temple, with its monuments mostly dating back to the Ptolemaic Period (332–30 BC).

Afterwards, we'll head to see the Unfinished Obelisk, one of Egypt's largest and most significant archaeological discoveries.

Optional: Morning visit to Abu Simbel Temple.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 5: Disembarkation

After breakfast, you'll disembark from the Zeina Nile Cruise.

You will be transferred to Aswan Airport or the train station.

This marks the end of our service.
