Day 1: Arrival to Cairo

Our travel specialist will be waiting for you at Cairo International Airport with a board bearing your name to begin your trip in Egypt, and he will assist you with all processes. He will transport you to your hotel in a private, air-conditioned premium car.

Upon arrival at the hotel, our representative will assist with a smooth check-in and provide a welcome drink while checking your Egypt Travel Packages itinerary to confirm pick-up times for each day.

Overnight in Cairo.

Day 2: Giza Pyramids - Saqqara - Memphis

The Cairo Day Tours will begin with breakfast at the hotel lobby and include a tour of the Giza Pyramids, Saqqara, Memphis, and the Valley Temple. The tour will begin with a visit to the Great Pyramid of Cheops, the second Pyramid of Chephren, and the third pyramid on the plateau of King Mycerinus. The tour will also include a visit to the Great Sphinx and the Valley Temple of King Chephren.

After lunch, the tour will continue to the Step Pyramid of King Zoser in Saqqara, the oldest building entirely made of stone. The pyramid of Teti, with its spectacular interior, is another attraction. The tour will also include a visit to the tombs of the nobles at Saqqara, where daily life scenes in ancient Egypt are inscribed and painted on the walls and corridors.

Memphis will be visited by an open-air museum, featuring an exhibition of statues and artifacts from the ancient capital of the pharaohs, including an alabaster sphinx and one of Ramses II's statues. The tour will conclude with a return to the hotel and an overnight stay.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 3: Egyptian Museum, Coptic & Islamic Cairo

The Egyptian Museum and Coptic Cairo provide a comprehensive historical tour, showcasing over 160,000 ancient Egyptian antiquities and King Tutankhamun's riches. The Citadel of Saladin and Mohamed Ali's Alabaster Mosque are rare specimens of Ottoman architecture in Cairo, with the Citadel serving as the Egyptian government's headquarters.

Lunch is given at a high-end restaurant, followed by a trip to Coptic Cairo, where you may see the old Roman citadel of Babylon and the Hanging Church. The Church of St Sergius, also known as the Cavern Church, was erected atop the crypt where the holy family spent nearly three months. The Ben Ezra Synagogue said to be the site of the pharaoh's palace, is equally noteworthy.

Cairo sightseeing tours include Islamic Cairo trips, where you can explore the ruins of medieval Cairo, including madrasas, sails, and gates dating back to the 10th century. The walk ends with tea at Fishawy's oldest cafe in Khan El Khalili, Cairo's old bazaar.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch

Day 4: Cairo to Luxor & East Bank of Luxor Tour

Your tour guide will then arrange a taxi to take you to Cairo International Airport for your domestic flight leading you to the tourism hub of Egypt, Luxor.

Once we get to Luxor, we will transfer you to board your Nile Cruise. Thus, this cruise will help you watch the enchantment of the eternal river and discover the monuments and history of the region. Then after, you will check in at your respective cabin and, after taking some time to refresh, lunch on board the Nile cruise will be served. After that, we shall proceed to sightsee across the city of Luxor.

Beginning our Luxor East Bank Tours we will visit the complex of Karnak Temples, which have been built over 2 millennia to become a natural museum of the art of ancient Egypt, the reflection of power and greatness of the age of gold, and a base of historical information. Next, we will visit the Temple of Luxor which is another sign of New Kingdom achievements of the great Pharaohs. Upon the Luxor day tours, we will be escorted back to the boat to take some rest and spent the rest part of the day lazily before the nice luxury dinner meal that will be offered in the ship's restaurant. Experience a calm and peaceful input on the first night of Nile River Cruise station in Luxor.

A recommendation for an extra trip to the Sound and light show at the Karnak temple can be given.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 5: West Bank of Luxor - Edfu

On your fifth day with us, you will start with breakfast and then go on one of our Luxor West Bank tours. Later today, we will leave the boat to see two of Egypt's most famous attractions: the rock-carved tombs of the New Kingdom Pharaohs in the Valley of the Kings and the Temple of Queen Hatshepsut, also known as El-Dier El Bahari.

We'll return to the ship later this afternoon for lunch when it travels to Esna. During tea time on the cruiser's top deck, take in the stunning panorama of the Nile Valley. A delicious oriental supper will be given on board upon arrival at Edfu, where you will spend the night enjoying the belly dance and musical extravaganza on the peaceful waters of the Nile.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 6: Edfu & Kom Ombo Sightseeing

Breakfast is served buffet style beginning at 8 a.m. The boat will next arrive in Edfu, which derives its name from the old "Edbo," which means "the town of the Piercing." This relates to Horus' conquest over Set. You may ride the horse carriage to the famed Edfu Temple, which is devoted to Horus, the falcon deity.

After seeing the temple, everyone will be able to board the boat and continue traveling down the Nile to the site of Kom Ombo. Once there, disembark for an incredible tour to the Temple of Kom Ombo, which was created in honor of two of Egypt's most prominent gods—the crocodile god Sobek and one of God Horus' forms.

We'll return to the cruise ship, which will be traveling to Aswan for day tours while you have your tea. Dinner will be provided in the evening, and you will enjoy the entertainment before retiring for another peaceful night on the Nile.

Meals: Breakfast, Lunch, and Dinner

Day 7: Aswan Sightseeing

In the morning, you will resume the discovery of Egypt and be prepared to visit Aswan for a one day trip for sightseeing. We are going to spend a day visiting Aswan take you for a day trip to Aswan High Dam, after that you will be accompanied to Aswan Granite Quarry to behold the world's largest unfinished obelisk in Egypt.

The remaining part of the day will be spent on the Nile cruising where new shores and the protected islands of the Nile, and the scenes of the greenery of the Nile will be seen.

This boat today is packed with activities that one would like to engage in. You can tan on the sun-deck, swim in the pool, read in your own cabin or get a massage at the up-to-date spa given by the boat. And if you wish we can suggest some additional excursions and things to do. Thus, it can be concluded that there is practically no reason to have a dreadful day or any sort of a bad day.

A delightful dinner on board the Nile cruise will be offered to you as your final meal in Egypt; your stay in Aswan will be your final Nile cruise.

You also have the opportunity to have an optional tour to the beautiful site of sound and light at Philae temple.

Meals: breakfast, lunch, dinner.

Day 8: Fly Back to Cairo

Breakfast will be given aboard the Nile Cruise boat, after which you will depart and be transported to Aswan airport in a contemporary car for your return trip to Cairo.

When you arrive at Cairo International Airport, our representative will greet and help you before transporting you to your overnight accommodation. You will enjoy a peaceful sleep in preparation for your day's adventures.

Meals: Breakfast.

Day 9: Free Day in Cairo

Let's spend today resting and soaking in everything Alexandria has to offer. Alternatively, if you like, we may arrange supplementary trips to this magnificent city from Cairo. The city of Qaitbay, located near the Mediterranean Sea, is known for its ancient structures, including the Citadel of Qaitbay, the Roman Catacombs of Kom El-Shoqafa, and Pompey's Pillar.

Meals: Breakfast

Day 10: Final Departure

After breakfast, our tour leader will drive you to Cairo International Airport.
